Waarom Gonuts

Omdat ik zelf een fervent 'donuteter' ben en fan ben van het design van deze koeken leek het mij naast logisch ook tof om daar iets rond te doen. Ik was er mij van bewust dat het onderwerp 'donuts' niet zo makkelijk zou zijn als op het eerste zicht leek. Je hebt ze in alle smaken en kleuren en dus zouden er keuzes gemaakt moeten worden zodat de website geen 'schilderspalet' zou worden.

Na het vergelijken en samenleggen van verschillende kleuren kwam ik tot een pallet wat naar mijn idee mooi samenhangend was en dus geen chaos aan kleur veroorzaakte. Het is uiteraard belangrijk dat bezoekers van een website de informatie niet lezen omdat ze zich letterlijk blindstaren door het kleurgebruik.

In mijn opinie mocht de site een vrolijke kleurenpalet hebben want laat ons eerlijk zijn: donuts zijn vrolijk en stralen dit ook uit!

Local Events

The local happenings are our favorites. Look for our truck at the next gig!

Your Party

We'll bring our truck and our donuts straight to you. Call us to book!

History

Both being already in love with food -and mainly desserts- after they met each other their shared passion had to become something more! So there was the 'birth' of their lovechild named GONUTS.

Quality Ingredients

Our toppings, glaze and dough are made fresh with local ingredients. We believe in 'the closer you buy it, the fresher it is'. Come pay us a visit and taste for yourself!

Made fresh everyday

As we work with local ingredients, it is more than logical that every part of the donuts are made fresh on a daily basis.

Ananda

Has always had a passion for food since he was very young. When he was just five his Mother couldn't keep him out of the kitchen! At 18 he started university to become a lawyer but realised that he already lost his soul to food. After quitting school he met Fien and they didn't only share their love for each other but also their love for food.

Fien

Spend most of her youth in the candyshop around the corner as she is the biggest sweet tooth in the world. After middle school she started working as a confectioner in the local bakery. One sunny morning in march, a friendly guy walked in and ordered two donuts, one for himself and one for her. And so the story of GONUTS began.
